Re: Shipco Transport, Inc. v. JDB International Inc., 09 Civ. 7532 (CM)

Dear Ms. Ambrosia and Mr. Orr:

I am the judge supervising the above-captioned case. I have received a motion from your company's attorneys, Cowan Liebowitz & Latman, seeking to be relieved as counsel in this case.

Because a corporation must appear through an attorney, and will be in default if not represented by counsel, I am always reluctant to relieve attorneys who are representing corporations, even when they tell me that their clients will not return calls or pay outstanding legal bills. Before I decide this motion, I would like to hear from you, as representatives of JDB International. I am, therefore, scheduling a conference call with you, me and your attorneys for next Tuesday, April 26, at 3 PM New York time (noon California time). You should contact my deputy clerk, Mariela de Jesus, at 212-805-6325, to get information for how to link into the call.

If you fail to participate in this call, I will enter an order granting the motion. You will then have 60 days to hire a new attorney. If you fail to do so, JDB will be in default and will risk having a default judgment entered against it.

Very truly yours,
